WIPEOUT!

Did you wax up your surfboards, get out your beach blankets and catch the wave of this swell surf musical? It was just another sunny day at Avalon Beach until Mom and Pop announce they were selling their beloved surf shop and teen hangout. The snobbish developers from the nearby ritzy Cove want Avalon's stretch of sand... for a parking lot! But Mom and Pop's daughter Midge and all the loyal Avalon kids were determined — they were not going to let that happen!

We had a wonderful cast ranging in age from 8 to 16, and big or little, they worked their very hardest to put on a fabulous show! In addition to many DLO veterans, we had lots of first timers this summer. We made strides to challenge them every step of the way. At auditions, it seemed like we had gotten just the right kids to audition, and it seems we were correct! Not only did the cast work hard to learn their lines, songs, and staging, but they also stepped up as individuals to help coach others in choreography and music. Alexis Simmons, Zayne McCorkle, and Bailey Williams not only lead onstage, but also off—where they were great role models for the younger cast members. We hope you saw the hilarious “Luau Love”, the tragic “Dead Man's Reef”, and the adventurous “Heave-Ho!” You were probably ready to grab your suit and jump into the waves!

In addition to our wonderful cast, we had a great team of youngsters working hard to build the set and make it their own (with careful supervision, of course). We had working surfboards and moving surf! We looked forward to our “painting day” where the kids got to give their surfboards personality.

We certainly had our work cut out for us—living up to the standard that DLO has achieved for so long, but if there ever was a group of young people that could, this was it and they did! Hang loose!

DLO'S 56TH SEASON IS HERE!

A Word From The Director...

Hello, Dolly! is one of the classic Broadway stage productions, and Danville Light Opera is pleased to bring it to the Danville High School Auditorium stage October 23rd-24th, 2010.

I've always loved Hello, Dolly! My high school produced it the year I was in 8th grade, and it's been a favorite ever since. It's big-time theater, with grand costumes on Dolly, precision timing with the Waiter's Gallop, and unforgettable songs, from "It Takes A Woman," "Before the Parade Passes By," "Put on Your Sunday Clothes," and of course, the title number "Hello, Dolly!" The story - the way that everyday life can change in a moment, but yet turn out to be a great experience is compelling.

And what about the unforgettable characters: Dolly Levi, brought to life by Carol Channing on Broadway; Horace Vandergelder, and Walter Matheau's version in the movie; the store clerks Cornelius and Barnaby (did you know that Charles Nelson Reilly played Cornelius on Broadway); along with Irene and Minnie in the millinery shop.

Hello, Dolly! is a chance for everyone that's been involved with DLO in the past to be part of one of those "big stage" productions. There's room for everyone, and we hope to see you at auditions August 22nd & 23rd.

The production team of Tom Fricke (director), Karen Grove (music director), and Cherie Turner (choreographer) will help the DLO family bring this production to life. Auditions will be held on Sunday, August 22nd at 2:30 p.m., and Monday, August 23rd at 6:30 p.m. A perusal script is available at the Danville Public Library. Additional audition information will be posted on the DLO website.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK:

Tempus fugit. Indeed it does. We are nearly through the summer, and at this writing, only weeks after the youth musical Wipeout. Arts In The Park is history, and DLO's contribution to those events were well done and well received. Many thanks to all those who had a part in bringing these events to the stage. Likewise, kudos are due to those who worked hard to organize the summer cast appreciation party, which in spite of the rain, was a treat for all who attended. We have welcomed two new members to the board of directors, i.e., Cindy Nichols, and Stephanie Keller, and are looking forward to our new season, opening, as you know, with Dolly! Fasten your seat-belts—time flies (or flees, if you prefer) and so are we!
