A Note from the Director

Have you ever had the experience that you were “going through the motions”?

Have you ever dreamed what it would be like to be someone more glamorous or sensual?

Do you have that lifelong friend who is there when no one else is?

If you do, you could be one of the many characters who take the stage in A...My Name Will Always Be Alice.

When I began this experience, I didn't know what to expect. After all, it's my first time! It's my first time directing adults, first time music directing, and first time being absolutely 100% in control of a show. There were no set assignments with parts and musical numbers. I have to admit, it's more than a little intimidating.

Then, auditions came up, and Jeanne auditioned, and then Flynn, Jenny, Stefanie, Gretchen, and Sarah. At that point, I heaved a BIG sigh of relief. These are the women that this show is about.

When I began assigning songs, I had no idea how this material would hit the cast. These ladies have been braver than any performers I've met. All barriers are gone—and they're willing to put it all out there. We've had tears, laughter, and nerves, and all because this show IS us.

We are the woman who longs for her mother—long since passed. We are the normally strong woman who is intimidated by our daughter's kindergarten teacher. We are the angry young girl at the bus stop who receives life-changing news.

We are all of them.
And so are you.

THE DLO MALLDOGS

Danville Light Opera is excited to have received permission from the Village Mall Management to paint the Center Stage wall facing into the mall!

Our plan is to create a mural of an actual theatre front (and back), and we need many hands to make this happen!

You do not need to be a visual artist to participate. There will be outlines drawn, expanses of solid color, and artistic types to provide guidance. You can help with the actual painting or assist painters as an extra set of hands.

This event will be both fun and promotional. Our hope is that this mural will draw attention to Danville Light Opera and serve as an attraction for the Village Mall. It's a way we can contribute to our community and have a great time doing it!

Dress to paint and join us for our first work day! We'd love a good mob of theatre people and their friends and families to help us get the job done!

Just come on down or... got questions? Please contact organizer Stephanie Keller at stephaniereads@yahoo.com or write to danvillelightopera@hotmail.com and one of our Board members will get back with you!

The DLO MALLDOGS
will set up and begin mural painting on Saturday,
January 8, 2011
At 9 .m.

Dress to paint!
Plan to have fun and give something special to the Danville community while bringing a little excitement to the Village Mall!
