Director's Note

Welcome to the magic of The Little Mermaid!

I have been enchanted with the story of The Little Mermaid since I saw the Disney film in a Des Moines movie theater in 1989. It has been a dream come true to be able to help bring the show to the stage here in Danville.

Directing our amazing cast of over 80 adults, teens and children, has been an incredible experience! What a privilege to work with some of the very best humans in our entire region! I could not be more proud of their commitment and dedication to bringing the magic to the stage for you.

Directing a show is a little like making a mosaic. It involves attending to the detail of each little piece—and there are So Many Moving Pieces in this show—and then finally being able to experience the entire work of art in perspective. Like a puzzle, every piece matters. But this is a mosaic; it's art.

Every person, prop and piece of technology has a story of its own. Our actors not only learned and performed the parts you will see, but also gave many free previews for members of our community. Our incredible crew, production team and volunteers spent hundreds of hours creating an amazing foundation for our performance, much of it that will never been seen from the seats in the audience. Our music director and musicians provide the very glue that holds us all together. There is even a group of young leaders who led, mentored, and inspired children who are still younger, so that the love of theatre can grow beyond The Little Mermaid and impact their lives in future.

The funds for the special technology you will see during our performances were raised by our cast. We are so grateful to our many sponsors who generously supported us. Please seek them out and thank them with your business!

You, our audience, are the final pieces in the mosaic of performance art. Especially here with us, in The Little Mermaid.

With all the pieces in place, the final step to appreciating our mosaic is to step back and view the art in perspective. Say, from about the distance of the very seat in which you find yourself.

We appreciate you! Thank you for coming and participating in the magic of The Little Mermaid! We know you will enjoy being part of our world.

~Shannon Schroeder, Director

The Cast

Landon Frazier (Windward) Landon is a freshman at Westville High School. He has been involved in theatre since 5th grade. This is his fourth DLO production. He would like to thank his family and friends for always supporting him.

Alison Johnson (Atina) is excited to be in her second DLO show! Alison has always dreamed of doing musical theatre, and is grateful to be performing in her first production. She has many years of involvement in solo vocal performance and dance throughout high school and college. Outside of the theatre, she is a veterinary oncologist at VCA Aurora Animal Hospital and a children's writer.

Mackenzie Kizer (Aquata) Mackenzie is a 15 year old sophomore at Danville High School. This is her third year of theatre and fifth year of show choir. She is super excited to be playing Aquata and to be able to act with so many talented people!

The Cast

Aaron Martin (Scuttle) Aaron would like to ask that you don't ask about either his or Scuttle's business. Thank you very much!

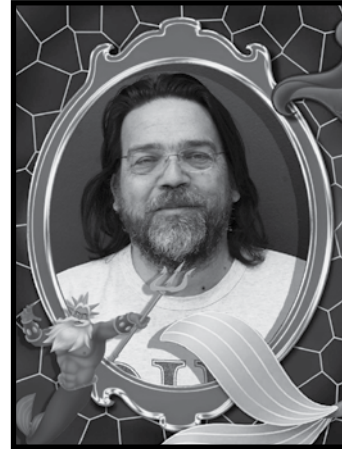

Ron McDaniel (Grimsby) has appeared in more than 50 community theatre shows. Recent DLO roles include Horace Vandergelder in Hello, Dolly!, Mr. Brownlow in Oliver!, and the Bishop in Les Misérables. Ron has directed six shows, appeared in five independent films, and served on the Theatre Advisory Panel of the Illinois Arts Council. In 2014, he was one of three in the nation to be honored with the Robert E. Gard Superior Volunteer Award from the American Association of Community Theatre. He is a past president of DLO and a current board member.

Natalie Moreno (Flotsam) is thrilled to return to the stage after a 7 year hiatus! She has worked on many musicals and other productions. Her favorites were Cabaret and Anything Goes. She graduated in 2010 from Southern Illinois University Carbondale with a double degree in Psychology and Theater. Natalie is now a teacher's aide at Mark Denman Elementary. She is grateful for this amazing performance opportunity.

The Cast

Paul Strain (King Triton) I am performing this role in honor and memory of Matt Brown, fellow DLO Musical Theatre veteran, pictured (left or right). Matt passed away on September 9, 2016 at the age of 45. When we first announced Little Mermaid I thought of Matt, and how great he would be as King Triton. It is he who should be up here, knocking this role out of the park. I hope I do you justice, my friend. You are missed.

Matt Brown appeared on the DLO stage in Les Misérables (Babet/Fauchelevant), and in Oliver! (ensemble). His bigger-than-life presence made an impression on many and we were lucky to work with him.

Thomas Strain (Pilot) Thomas has been active in theater for 5 years in many school and DLO Musical Theatre productions. He spent this summer as Chuck Cranston in Footloose. He would like to thank his family and friends for their support!

The Cast

Michael Natt (Prince Eric) 17, a senior at South Vigo HS, is thrilled to be making his debut with DLO. He has appeared in numerous productions on local stages, including Maple Avenue UMC's Summer Dinner Theatre and Community Theatre of Terre Haute. Most recently, Michael appeared as Adult Simba in Disney's The Lion King Jr. Other favorite roles include Rocky Horror Show (Dr. Frank-N-Furter), Spunk (Sweetback), Guys and Dolls (Nathan Detroit), and Hairspray (Seaweed). Michael is grateful for the opportunity to be a part of this fantastic production and hopes you enjoy the show. He thanks the best chauffeur for all the trips to and from home. Thanks Mom!

Alexis Nichols (Adella) Alexis is 17 years old. This is her 4th DLO show; her 6th show in total. Her favorite role was playing Sandy in Grease last summer. She wishes everyone the best of luck on stage!

Isabelle Peters (Arista) Isabelle is a sophomore at Schlarman Academy this year. This is her 10th DLO production, and she was most recently seen as Ariel in Footloose. She loves singing, dancing, acting, and drinking coffee. She would like to thank her family and friends for their loving support.

The Cast

Brookelyn Powell (Jetsam) Brookelyn is a sophomore at Danville High School. She is active in show choir and Madrigals. This is Brookelyn's 13th show with DLO. Her most recent shows include Footloose, Grease, and The Addams Family. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Liz Schiro (Chef Louise) Liz is far too busy cooking up this fun for you to take time to write a bio. But, since we know her so well, we are sure she hopes you enjoy the show and thanks everyone involved!

Bryan Schroeder (Sebastian) is excited to be back onstage at DLO. Looks like he survived the "wife as the Director" situation! Last seen in Promises, Promises with his wife Shannon (they had to practice...a lot!), and as Judge Turpin in Sweeney Todd, Bryan was assured that his role in this show, an uptight crab, was not typecasting.

The Cast

Molly Smith (Ariel) is 17 and a senior at DHS. She is a DLO veteran and has done several shows with them, including Grease, where she starred as Rizzo and Footloose as Rusty. But DLO is not the only company she has been with. She performs for companies around the community and even outside. She is incredibly excited, and would like to thank Jennifer Woodrow, Liana Alcantara, and her own mother and director Shannon Schroeder.

Asleigh Spence (Leeward) is a junior at Unity High School and is very excited to be in her first show with DLO! Previous shows include Hairspray, Footloose, and Shrek. Thanks to her parents, Ms. G., and Jerry Strain!

Jerry Strain (Flounder) Jerry has been active in theater for 5 years in school, CUTC, and DLO Musical Theatre productions. He enjoys building/creating props. This will be Jerry's first production with his family since 2012. He hopes you enjoy the performance tonight and would like to thank his family and friends for their support!
