Kick off those Sunday Shoes...

...With The Director!

What a privilege to spend the summer making theatre magic with 47 of our area's greatest young people! Footloose has been a labor of love and I couldn't be more proud of our cast and the way they have tackled sensitive issues, emotional topics, and challenging material. Not to mention the many musical numbers and All That Dancing! This show has many moving parts. I'm so grateful for the support of all the families of our cast and crew, who have volunteered countless hours to put together the many pieces of this production that are never seen from the audience. Our production team has been outstanding and I'm especially delighted that I had the chance to work again with the very talented Merrit Spicer, our choreographer, who has been my creative cohort since the 1980s—coincidentally, the time period for Footloose! Thank you to my family for selflessly sharing their summer with our show and to the DLO Board of Directors for allowing me the opportunity to work with these amazing kids. Thank you for coming! Now, kick off your Sunday shoes, cut loose, and enjoy our production of Footloose!

Shannon Schroeder, Director of Footloose

DLO opens it's next season with Disney's The Little Mermaid!

Performances October 20, 21, 22
Danville High School's Dick Van Dyke Auditorium.

Auditions for Men, Women, Teens, and Kids coming later this month! Stay tuned!

Laramie Ziegler — Laramie Ziegler is 15 years old. He is a sophomore at Georgetown-Ridge Farm High School. Footloose marks his fifth DLO production, thirteenth show in total. Once finished with high school, he plans to attend Evansville University and major in Theatre Performance.

Sarah Schroeder (crew) — Sarah Schroeder is 13 and will be starting 8th grade this year at NRMS. She has been in 11 plays/musicals all together. Footloose is the second show Sarah has stage crewed for. She is also a part of both show choirs at North Ridge, and hopes you enjoy the show.

Madi Watson (crew) — I am 12 years old and attending Schlarman Academy. I have been in 7 school musicals. I have also performed in DLO musicals: Annie JR, Xanadu JR, and James and the Giant Peach JR. I have performed in 2 Red Mask plays: Beauty and the Beast, and Huck Finn. I also participate in school sports: basketball, volleyball, and archery.

Ebony Rankin (crew) — Ebony Rankin is a theatre newbie. She's very excited to take part in this summer's DLO production of Footloose. Outside of theatre, she enjoys photography and eating.

Natalie Mills (crew) (not pictured) — A lover of animals, and hater of bad health. Spends the majority of their time watching conspiracy theory documentaries and having existential crises. An unapologetic feminist and human rights activist.

Thomas Strain – This show will be Thomas’ seventh production with DLO. Some of his former roles include Vince Fontaine in last year’s production of Grease, and recently, Uncle Henry in The Wizard of Oz. Playing Chuck Cranston was a leap for him, (not really) and he would like to thank Shannon for such a wonderful opportunity.

Justice Taylor — I'm 17. I like food. I'm a drummer. I go to Georgetown HS.

Grace Vogt – Grace is 14 years old, becoming a Freshman this fall at DHS. Footloose is the 4th DLO play she has participated in. Besides acting, she has taken dance lessons for 12 years and counting. She has also found a new hobby of show choir and wishes to continue doing it throughout her high school career.

Isaac Vogt – I am 18 years old, and I’m going to Indiana State University as a Freshman next year. Footloose is my first DLO production, and my second production overall. Aside from theater, I have been playing the trumpet for about 10 years now and I will continue developing that skill along with acting through college.

Brianna Webster – My name is Brianna Serpico-Webster and Footloose is my first DLO production. I don’t have much experience with musicals and plays, but I have always enjoyed watching them and so far I’m enjoying being in one. I really enjoy music and the emotions it can evoke in a person. Theatre is a great way to do that. I’m glad that I can be a part of this production.

Maddie Youhas – Maddie is a recent graduate from Salt Fork High School. I’ve been in mostly school shows and this is my first speaking role in a community show. This fall, I plan to begin my studies as a vet tech.
