Audition Information

Who: Men, women, teens, and children (as appropriate for roles) – no experience required

When: July 29, 30, and 31, 6:00-9:00pm. You only need to attend one session. Callbacks, if necessary, will be August 1.

Where: Center Stage Rehearsal Hall at Village Mall in Danville

Prepare: Script will be available for review at the front desk of the Danville Public Library in late July. Choose a song (does not have to be from this show) that best demonstrates your vocal ability.

What to Expect:

You will sing only about 32 measures (20-60 seconds) of your prepared song. Mark your sheet music ahead of time so that you can show it to the accompanist quickly. We may cut you off early. If we do, we promise it's not because we don't like you. We're just moving things along quickly so that we can get to everyone.

You may be asked to sing scales so we can assess your range.

You will audition individually with your song and scales.

You will read scenes from the script, either alone or with other auditionees.

Depending on the role you are trying out for, you may have a dance audition (usually in groups). Make sure you bring/wear comfortable shoes for your dance audition.

Attendance at rehearsals is mandatory. Rehearsals will be Sunday afternoons, and Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Come to auditions with a list of any conflicts between now and October 27. Put all this information on your audition form.

Most of all, enjoy yourself and let your personality shine through.
This is about fun and community!

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Everyone is aware of the fun and exciting story of Freaky Friday. From the 1977 movie...to the 2003 remake...to the newest 2018 Disney Channel movie. It has been a household movie title that is full of adventure and fun. A mom getting a day being in her daughters shoes and vice-versa. What could go wrong?

This show means a lot to me because this is the first show that I have ever directed. Fortunately, I was blessed to get my dream production team and my dream cast. You would have thought that I found a magical hourglass or something...

I want to thank each and everyone who was able to spend time driving their Children/ Siblings to practice, helping with costume searches, painting sets, and general helping in all aspect that is needed to put on a production.

Most of all, I want to thank each and every cast member in this production. You all have worked so hard and been so attentive to be able to make this show what it is and I know it's all going to pay off. I am proud of each and everyone of you and wish nothing but happiness and success for you all!

I would like to dedicate this show to Brittany Powell: May your stage light always shine.

Now without further ado I present Freaky Friday!

~Bryson Varner, Director
