DIRECTOR'S NOTE

"There's no place like home!" Absolutely. When I hear the downbeat of the orchestra with those iconic, Ozian tunes, I am immediately transformed back in time. I become that little girl fixated on the black and white television set watching as Dorothy is whisked away to the land of Oz; not knowing at that time the land over the rainbow was actually filmed in beautiful Technicolor. The movie The Wizard of Oz has enchanted viewers for 80 years, and there is no more perfect way to celebrate its anniversary than launching DLO's 65th year with this magical theatrical presentation!

The Wizard of Oz is engrained within the fiber of our national culture and enjoyed by all ages; therefore, how do you dare present the stage version to the masses and do the legend justice? Simply surround yourself and the musical with only the finest in production crew and cast, which we have done. As a first time DLO director, I have been blessed with a group of brilliantly and diversely talented people! And thanks to the masses of kind, generous people, you will watch our characters magically whisked away high into the wings with theatrical flying apparatus! Thank you to all who have made this adventure possible! And many thanks, personally, to my family for their support!

Now sit back and enjoy your journey down the yellow brick road and ponder your favorite moment. Do you wish for Scarecrow's brains, Tinman's heart, Lion's courage, or Dorothy's comfort of home? Maybe all four. Then, again, maybe you will realize you have to search no further than your own backyard for each, as there is, truly, no place like home!

Craig Krukewitt (Tinman)

has been performing with DLO for nearly 23 years and this just might be his favorite role yet! An avid traveler with a birthday coming up two days after the show closes, he thinks the Lonely Planet Guide to Oz would be the PERFECT gift for him, especially since he can't seem to find it anywhere. Thanks in advance.

Mark Learnard (Professor Marvel/The Wizard) is proud to have a role in DLO's production of The Wizard of Oz. He is supported in this endeavor by his wife (Lori) and fellow cast members. Mark has appeared in DLO's Damn Yankees, How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, La Cage aux Folles, Violet, and Curtains. Mark is dedicating this performance to his dad, Bill Learnard.

CAST & CREW

is thrilled to be able to bring such an iconic character to life! No stranger to community theater, some of Cindy's favorite past shows include BHDT's productions of Oklahoma! and The Marvelous Wonderettes and DLO's productions of Cinderella, Gypsy, and, most recently, Beauty and the Beast. In real life, Cindy is Executive Director of the Vermilion Healthcare Foundation, an adjunct faculty member at DACC, and mom to two wonderful girls – Caroline and Joanna. Cindy would like to thank her husband Gardner, her daughters, and the rest of her family for their unconditional love and support.

Cameron Sheets (The Guard)

is extremely proud to be joining the cast of The Wizard of Oz. Among Cameron's musical theater experiences is having played the role of Enjolras in the DLO-DACC production of Les Misérables, the role of the Beast in the DLO-DSO production of Beauty and the Beast, and playing guitar in the pit for the DLO production of Next to Normal. Cameron, as well as being a singer and actor, is a passionate musician. He plays many instruments and is working on several musical projects in which he plays guitar and sings.
