THE SPITFIRE GRILL (musical) was inspired by the 1996 film of the same name. The film was set in Gilead, Maine, but for the stage, Gilead was relocated to northern Wisconsin. The gorgeous score to the film was composed by James Horner. (You may recognize some of his other film work: Titanic, A Beautiful Mind, Field of Dreams, Braveheart, Glory, and more.) It is as beautiful and haunting as the story it enhances, and themes from this soundtrack are woven into the stage musical score.

One last position remains on our phenomenal production team. If you love finding things, props acquisition and management might be a fun challenge for you, and a great opportunity to work with some terrific people! If you have questions or are interested in helping, please contact Jeanne Dunn by email at jeanze@comcast.net.

The Secret Garden

April 23, 24 & 25, 2010

The Bremer Theater at Danville Area Community College

Greg Williams, Director ♦ Belinda Smith, Music Director

Jesse Pierce, Choreographer ♦ Suzy Smalley, Producer

Long before it became a musical, THE SECRET GARDEN, written by Frances Hodgson Burnett, was first serialized beginning in autumn 1910, in The American Magazine. The book was first published in its entirety in 1911. Its working title was Mistress Mary, in reference to the English nursery rhyme Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary. It is now one of Burnett's most popular novels, and is considered to be a classic of children's literature.

If you have questions or are interested in helping in any capacity, please contact Greg Williams by email at mindthegap2@comcast.net.
